Rumors That Standard Oil Has Locked Horns With Financier.

NEW YIRK, Jan. 19 .- The stock market opened generally lower, with Ana-conda showing an exceptional loss of 3½. Colorado Fuel declined ¾; Balti-3½. Colorado Fuel declined %; Balti-more and Ohio, %; Southern Pacific, %; Louisville and Nashiville, %; Steel common, ½, and Amalgamated, ½. Northern Pacific and New York Central lost ¼. Great Northern Ore certificates lost ½, and Atchison, and Smelting, ½. Stocks slumped again today, and the lowest records for weeks was reached by many securities. Evidences of bank-ing support were visible after the opening support were vision after the open-ing, and with the covering of short con-tracts, there was a slight rally. The liquidation was particularly heavy from cities all over the country, and houses with wire conections were heavy sellers. Calls for more margins were not so freely responded to and accounts of customers were closed out immed-iately.

Reports were current on the floor of he exchange that the Morgan and tandard Oil interests had locked horns a mighty battle, and that for the first time in many years the Morgan rowd was arrayed on the bear side. Near the end the selling pressure was elieved, and the market closed with a ally.

LEDWARD C. SEVAN Services on tem. Savonarola, the reformer of the fifteenth century, was the subject of Dr. fering's lecture, and his portrayal of the character was masterful. Most entertaining was the picture the speaker painted of Savoancola's early life, his rise as a preacher of the new religion and better life, his overthrow, through his alongence alone, of the reign of vice and eloquence alone, of the reign of vice and wickedness under Lorenzo de Medici's regime, until after the latter's death he was halled as the new leader by the peo-ple of Florence. ple of Florence.

The height of his triumph was reached, said the speaker, when he, as a priest, played upon the superstitions of Charles VIII, of France, to whom deMedici's degenerate son had delivered the keys of the sty and who was descending upon it with its army.
